ATALANTA XANTHE | BIOGRAPHY

Atalanta Xanthe was born in England and grew up in Albuquerque, New Mexico. She now lives and works in Brooklyn, New York. Xanthe attended the University of Oxford, Ruskin School of Art, then received her MFA from the New York Academy of Art in 2018. On graduating, she became the school's youngest Fellow (2018–2019). Xanthe is represented by ALICE BLACK in London and is featured in the permanent collections of the Ruth Borchard Collection, UK and the Marval Collection, Italy.

Xanthe's is a world of fantastical surrealism – a beguiling collision of nature and artifice. Through her own distinctive lens and skilled hand, Xanthe explores the nature of home and biography and is influenced by stagecraft and the world of theatre. A practice rooted in drawing, Xanthe teases out her composition and narrative over the course of many preliminary studies, before embarking on the final painting. Xanthe's ability to vault, jump headlong, sprint or glide effortlessly across the canvas is testament to her love of paint and the purist act of applying pigment to canvas, in the name of her story-telling.
